

ECONOMIC PHILOSOPHY
PHILOSOPHIE DE L'ECONOMIE

1986, 334 pages, Editions du Seuil, Paris

Contents

1. Introduction: Economic Philosophy: a birthday certificate

I – Philosophy and Economics

2. Grandeur and limits of economics
3. What is economics use?
4. The particular scientific method of economics
5. Individualism and rationalities
6. Are mathematics a language?
7. Experience in economics
8. Economic theory
9. Economic science and political position
10. Marx-Walras-Keynes

II – Economics in history, ethics and politics

Introduction

11. The monetary lessons of history
12. Economic thought upsets the world: The Icarus flight of Keynesianism
13. Dollars and crises
14. The explanations of the crisis of Marxist inspiration
15. Liberalism and economics
16. The embedded public lie in economic policy
17. The sense of social choice