

JUSTICE AND EQUITY / JUSTICE ET EQUITE

1971, 126 pages, CEPREMAP, Paris

Reprinted: 1972, Editions du CNRS, Paris

English translation with new Foreword:

Justice and Equity

1998, 275 pages, MIT Press

Contents

Foreword (1997)

1. Presentation
2. Fundamental preferences and utility
3. Cardinal utility
4. Summary of issues in comparison of utilities or preferences

Introduction

I – Concepts and Problems

- A. Basic Concepts
  1. Personal situation
  2. State of society
  3. Permuted states
  4. Domain of possible states and constraints
  5. Personal preferences
- B. Efficiency, Equity, Equality
  1. Efficiency
  2. Equity
  3. Existence and compatibility
  4. Equality
- C. Particular Structures
  1. Identical preferences
  2. Problems of the two person society
  3. Satiety and satiation
- D. Processes
  1. Processes and implementation
  2. Free exchange
  3. Forming and assigning lots
- E. Distribution Problems
  1. Constraints
  2. Properties
  3. Specifications
  4. Questions
  5. Some results on equity in distributions

II – Distribution

- A. Two Persons
  1. Properties
  2. Processes

B. Any Number of Persons

1. Compatibility of equity, efficiency, and unanimous preference to equality
2. Identical preferences

III – Justice

A. Justice and Equity

1. Fundamental preference
2. Definition of (eudemonistic) justice
3. Fundamental equity
4. Justice and partial equity
5. Justice can be inefficient or impossible

B. Adequacy

1. Definition
2. Equity and adequacy

C. Fundamentalism

1. Presentation
2. Unanimity
3. Permutation and ordered states
4. Fundamental equivalence and dominance
5. Practical justice
6. Questions of existence
7. Fundamental and extremal majorities, fundamental rank principles
8. Interpersonal comparisons of nested advantages and disadvantages
  9. Comparison of ordinal inequalities, inclusion, truncations
  10. Other directions

Index